REPORT OF TRAINING SCHOOL FOR 1914.

To the Graduates of the Boston and Massachusetts General Hospital Training School for Nurses, GREETING:

We are sorry that all of you could not attend graduation. Miss Mabel Boardman gave the principal address, which was most interesting. Two papers written and read by the Seniors were a feature of the evening. One was entitled "Earning the Broad Black Band," and the other "What Makes a Nurse's Training Worth While." They will all be published in the Quarterly.

You will be interested to know that at the present time we have two hundred and eleven in the School, including graduates (twenty-eight), probationers (twenty-five) and accepted pupils.

The principal changes during the year were as follows:

Miss Annie Smith went to the Rochester City Hospital as Second Assistant Superintendent. Miss Lilian Lovely and Miss Helen Claire left to get married. Misses Nellie G. Sharp and Sara J. Condon went to the Polyclinic Hospital, New York, to take charge of the operating suite. Miss Fannie Howe resigned on account of health. Miss Hinckley went to Bryn Mawr College Infirmary and Miss Catherine Sullivan accepted a position at Corey Hill Hospital. We admitted ninety-two probationers, fifty-two of whom were accepted as nurses. We had two hundred and seventy-seven applications during the past year (ninety-two more than in 1913). We have shortened the hours of night duty on the three hardest wards, hoping to extend it through the house in time. We are concentrating the theoretical work into the first two years, leaving the third year open to elective and special work.

We are indebted to a long list of friends for lectures on special subjects, and to several people for gifts to the School; Miss Whitmore, Mrs. Motley and Mrs. Vaughan have contributed books to the library, Miss. M. C. Parker, a framed picture; a graduate, $200 to the Training School Fund; the graduates of the classes of 1894, 1895 and 1896, a considerable sum of money to be spent for suitable mahogany furniture for the vestibule of the new home; through a pupil, $500 was given the hospital. The 1915 Class gave a beautiful mahogany tea carriage with complete equipment of silver tray, tea kettle, tea caddy, colonial spoons, sugar holder, lemon plate, tongs and fork, china and doilies. It will always be a substantial reminder of the loyal and hospitable spirit of the class.

Through the suggestion of Miss Fenno, a good tennis court, chiefly financed by a pupil, was provided for the nurses and very much enjoyed.

The Bradlee Theatre has been pulled down and replaced by a very attractive and conveniently equipped ward for convalescent female surgical cases.

If there are any of the early graduates who have pictures of themselves in uniform or any interesting pictures of the wards, will they please loan them to me to be copied?

The members of our Ladies' Friendly Committee gave a very pleasant tea to the seniors in our new home and have been untiring in their efforts to help the school. Mrs. H. N. Slater, a new member of our board of trustees, has given the nurses two teas in her home, which were well attended and much enjoyed.

There have been no special changes in the curriculum. You will all be glad to hear that "The Thayer" is being renovated, so that it will almost compete with the New Home.

I want to use this opportunity to bespeak your interest in the Alumnae Association of which only three hundred and sixty out of more than seven hundred living graduates are members. Annual dues are only $2 a year and life membership according to age.

As so many of you are married and too far away to come to the meetings, you may think there is no use in belonging. Now that we publish the Quarterly Record, we are able to keep in much closer touch with each other, and as a member of the Alumnae Association, you would receive the Quarterly. Your dues and interest would sustain and stimulate those who are near enough to do the work of the Association. It is only through organization that we can effectively represent our hospital and exert the influence on nursing affairs in general that our school ought to exert. Will you not join as a life member, if you can afford to do so, and if not as a life member, please join as a yearly member.

During the last two years four nurses have resigned and thirty-six have been dropped from the Alumnae Association for non-payment of dues, according to the Constitution and By-Laws. We feel sure it is due in most cases to carelessness rather than intention to fall out, and we earnestly hope these members will all pay up back dues and get reinstated.

Do you all know about the Sick Relief Fund for our graduates? If not, I would advise you to write for particulars to Miss Beatrice Galbraith, 116 Mt. Vernon St., Boston, Mass.

We are hoping to have a grand reunion at the hospital the 13th and 14th of September. Just before our big fall class enters, we shall be able to entertain quite a number of our out-of-town nurses at the Hospital for one night and some of our married graduates who live in and near Boston will offer hospitality to those who cannot be accommodated here. We hope to have an interesting program in the Amphitheatre, to have a good dinner (Dutch treat) at one of the hotels and to have altogether a great revival of interest and comradeship.

I wish you all could hear as I do in the Training School Office the gratifying tributes to the work done by our graduates. It would stimulate you, as it does me, to a great desire to see our school adequately endowed.

The hospital is growing in every direction and the demand on the nursing staff is constantly increasing. The trustees support the Training School Department liberally out of the general fund, but if we had our endowment, it would liberate money used now for the School for use in other needed directions. Will you not pledge your financial support to the Training School Fund which now amounts to $40,000 and use your influence with others who could afford to contribute towards it? Can we not swell that fund to such dimensions in the next eight years that we can celebrate our fiftieth anniversary by the consummation of an adequate endowment? Our school is a great department of a wonderful organization and the relief and education that this organization stands for are worthy of our greatest admiration and most generous support according to our means.

Invitations to our reunion will be given in our June Quarterly and we hope to see a large number of our far-away graduates here at that time.

The Nurses' Conventions are to be held in San Francisco, June 20th to June 25th inclusive. As Secretary of the National League of Nursing Education, I shall probably attend and there are several of the Eastern graduates planning to go. One of my chief reasons for wishing to do so is the hope of meeting our graduates, who are in the far West. Please send your names to me at the Convention Headquarters and let us plan for a school reunion at lunch or dinner during the week.

Have you heard about our nurses who are doing Red Cross and volunteer work in England and France? The Quarterly tells about them. We are all justly proud of our school, but we could be more so, if all would contribute a little time and a little money to the support and to the activities that have grown out of the Alumnae Association.

Believe me,

Yours most cordially

SARA E. PARSONS.
